

FCC Comment

So the argument now is not how to protect children but rather how much harm or damage is acceptable? And the march to Gomorrah quickens lead by the moral cockroaches that pass for leaders.

I vehemently oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency “standards” that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast any expletives and nudity on the public airwaves at any time.

The current policy does not serve the public interest. Relaxing them further is an appalling idea and I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations.